Nance Records

Marriages Before 1850

Compiled

by

Robert B Nance

Radford College
Radford, Virginia

December, 1957

1470798

This work represents an effort to put into usable form data concerning Nance marriages before 1850.

The material has been copied from the official court records of Virginia and North Carolina. I have had little opportunity to obtain data from other states. However, some persons have been kind enough to send in information, and this has been included.

Records have been copied exactly as they appear in the official sources. It should be remembered, nevertheless, that in many cases the handwriting is very difficult to read, and often one can do little more than guess at the spelling intended. In every case it is wise to check with the source, if possible, as errors in transcribing can easily happen.

The arrangement of items is alphabetical. In each case the name of the Nance principal is given, with the name of the spouse opposite. In case of several similar names, then they are arranged chronologically.

Comments and additional information are given in note form below the line. In every case the source has been given. Only a few statements based on "tradition" are included. Whenever the parents are known they are given in the same note fashion.

Considerable use has been made of the Nance Memorial and The History and Geneology of the Nances, as these books are rare and difficult to consult. This does not mean, however, that I consider all these quotations accurate. Frequently there are very obvious contradictions and improbabilities, but the statement is given anyway so that the reader can draw his own conclusions.

As marriage records were not kept until the 1780's, it has been necessary to use wills and deeds as sources of information. Often the marriage bonds of a county have been carelessly kept, and today many are missing, even for comparatively late years. These gaps can be only partially filled from other sources.

The date which appears on the bond is the date it was issued. Usually the marriage was not perfomed until a day or two, even weeks, later.

This material has been provided with an index which is intended to be complete, with the exception of place names. I have spent many an hour searching material, only to find that there was nothing in it that I wanted.

In the index each name is given exactly as it appears, even though it is obvious that it is a variant of another more common spelling. Thus you will find Reubin and Reuben, Louis and Lewes Snyder and Snider. Always check for variants. They are not alway obvious, as Palmore and Palmer.

In this index the Nance wife is listed by her maiden name - of course, she could be a widow -, and also under the Nance heading by her first name. Thus you will find Mary Jones listed as Jones, Mary, and also as Nance, Mary (Jones). This has been done in an effort to simplify searching.

Remember to look for principals by nicknames as well as by the true name. Thus a Mary will often appear as Molly or Polly; Martha as Patsy or Patty; Sarah as Sally; and Margaret as Peggy.

The marriages listed here are, of course, far from complete. By further search and with your assistance I hope to be able to add to it, and to prepare a much enlarged and better work.

This work is not intended to be a genealogy, but only a reference book which will provide clues for further search. It should be used in connection with the other material I have compiled, the Nance Wills and Pensions.

I should appreciate very much any additional data you may be able to send, and any help in further identifying the individuals who are as yet not known. By putting together all available information it may be possible to produce an authentic Nance genealogy back to our original immigrant ancestor.

Finally, my sincere thanks to the many persons who have sent in data to be used in this compilation.

1 There were several intermarriages of the Nances with the Allen family in Mecklenburg and Brunswick counties, Va. HGN, page 126-127, gives some data on this Allen family.

2 This Allen was the son of Reuben and Amy (Williamson) Nance. Born 18 jan 1776, probably in Mecklenburg. He did not stay in Henry county, but it is not known where he went.

2 Alexander McCullock (the name is spelled in various ways in the Henry county records) married Susannah, the sister of Allen. See entry under Susannah.

3 Allen B Nance was the son of Archibald and Nancy (Williams) Nance; NM, page 318, lists his children.

4 Joseph Nance's will, 1820, mentions his daughter Anny Hester.

5 Archibald is the son of Thomas and Sarah Nance. He died ca. 1802. His children are given in the deed of Thomas and Sarah giving land to Nancy the widow of Archibald, dcsd., and to his children Thomas, Pashhall, Polly, and Allen. Bedford Deeds, Bk. 11, page 725, 16 dec 1802.

1 "Benjamin Estes Nance was born in Bedford County, Virginia, 17 feb 1830. Son of John and Martha (Estes) Nance. Grandson of Richard Nance, who was a soldier in the Revolution. His father John was a soldier in the War of 1812. Went to Howard county, Missouri, in 1855. Owned a 1427 acre farm. Married 24 dec 1847 Elizabeth R. Tinsley. Issue: two children: Laura, md. P. H. Burton, Martha E. md. Thomas Jordan."
History of Howard and Cooper Counties, Missouri, p. 522

Note: date given for marriage does not agree with bond date.

I have found no evidence that Richard Nance was a Revolutionary soldier. Also, there is no John Nance included in the Index of Soldiers of the War of 1812. Of course, it may not be complete.

NM, page 314, has several paragraphs about Benjamin Nance. Essentially the same as given above. He says that there were seven children, but only two lived to adulthood.

2 Bird is the son of Reuben and Amy (Williamson) Nance. he was born 24 jly 1772. He remained in Henry county until 1798 or 1797.
"Bird, or Captain Bird, an old gentleman, died in Richmond, Mo... aged about ninety. He was too old to write or to remember much distinctly, when the author first learned of him.. Jefferson Amzi Nance of Excelsior Springs, Missouri, used to visi him, and they claimed kinship, but could not be certain. Now it is certain. Captain Bird said there were twenty-one boys and seven girls in the twenty-eight."

1 Celia Ann Burnett is the daughter of John and Martha (Estes) Nance. See John's will, 1846
NM, page 314, says: "The Burnett family moved to Gentry and DeKalb Counties Missouri, in 1868."
NM, page 314, says 15 children in this family, but does not give names.

2 The will of Frederick Nance, 1795, mentions his daughter Charlotte Blanton.

3 This data taken from this marriage certificate:

" C Nance, age 20, the son of Chas and Lucinda Nance, white single, farmer, md C Burroughs, 30, widow, daughter of P Boothe and Judy Turner."
Campbell, Va. Marriage recs., Bk 2, p 94. 4 nov 1866.

4 See Clement's will, 1821, and Mosias Jones' will, 1796.

The NM is devoted largely to this man and his descendants. As this book is available in most of the larger libraries, we shall list only the names of his immediate children; they were: Dorothy; Mosias; Susan; Mary; William; Nancy May; Clement; Jane; John Wesley; Elizabeth; James Reed; Giles.

All of his children were born in Virginia, and some of them were married there. He, with most of his family, left Virginia in 1803, going first to Kentucky, where he remained some 18 months, and then pressing on into the Indiana Territory, where he made his home.

4 (from preceding page)

NM, p. 22, states that Clement died in late July or August, 1828, at the age of 72. Born, then, in 1756. NM, p. 13: "Clemtnt Nance and Mary Jones were probably married in 1775. Their first child was born March 22, 1776."

The author of the NM, after much speculation, could arrive at no satisfactory conclusion as to the father of Clement. See under David - Mary Crenshaw for more as to his ideas.

It seems to me that he is the son of Giles Nance, whose will is recorded in Wake, N C, 1809 (probated 1811) q.v.
By this will Clement Nance, brother of William Malone Nance, received 300 acres of land on Sugar Creek, in Pittsylvania county. On July 10, 1813, Clement Nance of Harrison county, Indiana, sells 383 acres of land to Reuben Curtis... with pointers in William M Nance's line. (Bk 25, p. 599)

There is one puzzle about this, however. On 1 feb 1812, Clement Nance of Newberry S C, sells 100 acres of land in Pittsylvania, on both sides of Little Sugar Tree Creek, and the deed is witnessed by William M Nance. If this is the son of Giles what did he do with the other 200 acres? And what is the relationship of the two?

I believe that the Clement of Indiana is Giles' son, however. A study of the names of the children in the two families seems to indicate that this is true.

1 The Clement of Newberry S C mentioned above. He was a brother of Frederick Nance of Newberry. See under Frederick, and see Clement's, Frederick's, and Erasmus G Nance's wills.

"Wanted: Parentage of Francis Eppes and his wife Matha Gilliam, who lived during the Revolution. Their daughter married Clement Nance, and their daughter Nancy Nance married William Baugh Shell, and moved to Coweta county, Georgia, in 1830 from South Carolina." Query in DAR mag jly 1929, p. 427.

HCN, p. 117, says that this Clement was the son of David Nance. He gives no source, and I am inclined to doubt it. See under David.

1 This may be the son of Reuben and Amy (Williamson) Nance, who was born 30 sep 1787. Henry and Franklin counties are adjacent.

2 The Census of 1880 for Rockingham county lists

C R Nance, age 85; Lucinda Nance, age 73.

3 "Hon. Clement Woodson Nance, 3rd son of William Howe Nance and Elizabeth Venable Nance, was born 26 mar 1811 in Davidson County, Tennessee.... In 1836 C W Nance married Ann D, daughter of Henry Avent of Huntsville, Alabama. Their children were: Lucilla Stanley; Narcissa; Ann Adelia; Montgomery Bell; Mary; and William Henry.... He died 8 may 1893, and his wife died 19 jly 1891.."
History of Davidson County Cf. also NM, p. 295

4 The name is obviously Clement Nance. NM, page 321: "John Nance was born in North Carolina. Nothing more is known of him. His children wre William Franklin Nance, who married 1st Nancy Lowe, 2nd Elizabeth Dunaway; Clement, who married Frances Berry; Frederick, who married Polly Berry; John; James; Lawson."

HGN, pp 15, 89, 90, has the same as above, but adds that John was the son of Richard Nance (b. 1726), who moved to Granville, North Carolina.

5 Giles Nance's will, 1811, mentions his daughter Cloe Mitchell. See also NM, page 237

ante will	1780 Va.	David [1]		Mary Crenshaw dau of William Crenshaw

1 Mrs C S Woodward gives the date of this marriage as 1769

NM, p 286, says: "David Nance was a soldier in the Revolution under Washington. He remained two years, when, after the severe winter at Valley Forge, his health was so impaired as to be unfit for service, his nephew Zachariah Nance II voluntarily took his uncle's place and served until the close of the war. When David went home to repair his health, he was murdered, and left his children orphans. They were bound out at the end of the war. His brothers and sisters, so far as known, were Zachariah I, William Howe, Frederick, and Patsey Sneed. His sons, so far as known, are Frederick, Robert, Giles, Clement, Erasmus, and William Howe.."

NB: All of this is incorrect, or at the best, quite confused. These persons are doubtless close relatives, but, for most of them, the relationship cannot be determined exactly with the insufficient data I have now.

William Crenshaw in his will, q. v. mentions his daughter Mary as the wife of David Nance, and he leaves gifts to his grandchildr David, William, Mary, Elizabeth, and Susanna Nance.

In 1796 Giles Nance deeds land, "for love and affection" to William and David, sons of David Nance, dcsd. Giles, however, was not their grandfather, as he was born in 1735, and David married 1769. Giles may have been David's brother, and their parents John and Martha Nance.

"Buckner and David Nance were brought into court and charged with being enemies of the Commonwealth, and bonded to keep the peace." Pittsylvania court orders, Bk. 4, p. 285 41, 23 oct 1777

"At a court held for Pittsylvania County the 22nd of January 1780, Robert Bullington was found guilty of having stabbed and killed David Nance. " Court Orders, Bk. 4, p. 285

Mary Nance, David's widow, married David Scales. See under Mary.

I have not found any record of David's service in the army.

1. Frederick Nance was born in Amelia County, Virginia 15 aug 1770, died in Newberry district, South Carolina, 10 feb 1840. His first wife, Elizabeth Rutherford, was the daughter of Colonel Robert Rutherford. Frederick's will is filed at Newberry, and gives the names of his children.

   Nance Memorial, page 286 ff, has a good sketch of him and his descendants. However, I doubt that David was his father.

2. See note under Clemmons - Frances Berry.

3. Carrington, op. cit. page 475, gives the date as 25 mar 1825

1 Giles is the son of John and Martha Nance, born 4 may 1735. (Bristol Paris Register)

He lived in Amelia (later Nottoway) county until 1802, when he moved to Wake county, North Carolina, buying land near Raleigh.

He secured in 1779 a grant to 1574 acres of land on Cascade Creek in Pittsylvania, but apparently did not live there, as his name does not appear on the personal property lists of that county at any time.

Pittsylvania records show numerous deeds by him to various Nances and others. There grew up quite a large "Nance" settlement, with families so numerous, so closely related, and with the same Christian names that it is almost impossible to determine their true relationship. Pittsylvania is adjacent to Henry county, Virginia, and to Rockingham, North Carolina. Although many families left this region, there are still many descendants living here. As is the case with most persons, they know nothing of their family history. The usual statement is that and an indefinite number (from 3 to 14) brothers came over "from England and started the Nance family." The "14" doubtless is based on Reuben Nance's sons. He had 14 in his family.

See Giles' will for the names of his children. Some remained in Virginia, others went to other sections, and some went with him to Wake.

"Giles Nance died a few days ago in Wake county near Falls of the Neuse.. age in his 74th year." Notice in the Raleigh State Register 10 sep 1810.

2 The son of Giles and Mary Nance. Probably the youngest child. He went with his father to Wake, and then to Huntsville, Alabama, where he died. His will is recorded there, 1852.
NM, p. 328, gives his children as: Mary A, who md. 1st G W Milburn, 2bd D A Cannon; Sarah W, md L W Harain; Nancy J md Wiley Thompson; John S Nance, B R Nance, Robert S Nance, and William H Nance.
HGN, p. 117, copies the material from NM, and adds: "Giles and Mary Nance reared their family on a plantation near Forestville, N C. He, with a part or all of his children, moved to Huntsville, Alabama, where he died."

HGN, pages 40 to 50, gives a detailed account of descendants, with several pictures. Unfortunately, most of his work is little more than the listing of names.

Nance Memorial, page 330, also has some data on these.

2 Hardin Nance lived on the North Carolina - Virginia line, in Rockingham N C, and Henry, Va. It is not known who his parents were, except that his mother was Mollie B ___ Nance. He had at least one brother, Clement, who lived in Rockingham N C. Another borther may have been Pleasant Nance, who had a son named Hardin. Undoubtedly the name Hardin came from some near relative, but the connection has not been found.

Hardin Nance was a farmer, and owned land in Henry county. There is a family cemetery locted on this land, which is located a few miles east of Ridgeway, Va. He is buried beside his wife, with several other members of the family. The inscription on his tombstone reads:

The inscription on his wife's tombstone reads: " In memory of Mary B, wife of Harden Nance. Born March 20, 1797, died March 13, 1879. She was a devoted member of the Primitive Baprtist Church for forty-two years."

Other inscriptions read: "Mary R King, born ... 23, 1843, died ..... 1903" (letters blurred).

"Maude L, wife of Thomas W Land. Born December 3, 1886, died June 27, 1927. As a mother devoted, A friend, ever affectionate, kind, and true."

1 See his will for the names of his children.

It is interesting to speculate as to the parents of this man. He could be a son of the Richard of 1639, for if he were born between 1640 and 1650, he would have been between 76 and 86 at the time of his death, not at all an improbable age. We can deduce from studying his will that he had several married children who must have been at least between thirty and forty, which means that they were born between 1775 and 1685. The William mentioned in the 17th century records could have been his brother - or his father.

2 Probably the son of John and Sarah of the above note. The Bristol Parish Register gives his children as: Elinor, born 25 may 1721; Thomas, b. 22 sep 1723; Richard, b. 24 jan 1726; William, b. 12 jly 1728.

His will was probated in Lunenburg Va. 1762, and mentions other children also.

1 "...You mention the note from Essex, 1742, (1722 - which?), that Margaret Nance was executrix of the will of Ralph Rouzie. This is true, and marriage of Margaret Rouzie, widow, to John Nance, is also mentioned in some of the deeds. I am a descendant of Ralph by his first wife, Rebecca Tomlin, but he also had a number of children by his 2nd wife Margaret who was his executrix. I've never located her maiden name... my records do not show whether she had Nance children, but I would doubt it as she appears to be of middle age at the time of her marriage to him..." (Data from L B Gardner, Memphis, 1957)

2 See the will of John Nance, Essex, 1731. No children mentioned. If a check shows date of Ralph Rouzie's will is 1722, then I would be inclined to think that the John of note 1 and 2 are the same. However, there's still the Margaret and Mary.

3 Bristol Parish Register gives John and Martha Nance as the parents of Giles, born 4 may 1735. Amelia Deeds, 1764, also indicate that one daughter was Elizabeth. Other than this, I have found nothing positive as to children.

The following data is copied from HGN, page 18-19. There is no way of verifying the statements, and I think some are erroneous. However, you can make you own evaluation.

"John Nance Jr is the oldest son of John Nance Sr, born about 1718 in Prince George County, Virginia; he and his father moved to Lunenburg county about 1755 as they both entered land on the same day.

"John Sr. entered 400 acres on both sides of Meherrin river on September 10, 1755. Book No. 31, page 552.

"John and Martha's children as far as known are: Giles, born in Prince George County, Va. May 4, 1735, of which nothing more is known.

"Robert (who married _____ Marshall)

"Thomas (who married Priscilla _____)

"Patsy (who married William Maske)

"Isham lived in Mecklenburg county in 1782, and had seven whites in family and six slaves. Nothing more is known of him.

"Daniel Nance had four whites and seven slaves and lived in Mecklenburg county in 1782, the author believes that he moved to Bladen county N C, at the same time that his sister went there. She, aunt Patsy, reared her Maske children there and later came to Anson county, N. C. "

John Nance probably died in Pittsylvania county in 1782, as shown by this record in the Court Orders: "Martha Nance, widow and relict of John Nance, deceased, is granted the adminstration of his estate." April court, 1782.

Martha Nance's name appears of the Pittsylvania personal proterty tax lists for the years 1783 and 1784, and shows that she owned one slave and one house. She must have died in 1784, as her name does not appear after that. Clement and William Malone Nance appear together with hers. They were the sons of Giles, and therefore her grandsons.

1. I am not certain that there was a marriage here. In the Amelia Deeds, Bk, 1, page 7, Matthew Smart of Merchant Brandon, of Prince George County, sells to John Nance of Raleigh Parish of Amelia, for one shilling, 300 acres of land in Amelia between the branches of Little Nottoway River. This must have been a gift of land for marrying a daughter.

1 The son of William Nance, whose will is filed Brunswick 1771.

He moved to Henry county, Va., with his brother Reuben. John apparently lived close the Va.-N. C. line, as we find records of him there. His name appears on the Henry personal property tax lists until 1807, when he either is dead or has moved. His brother Reuben died in 1812. There is no indication as to his children, although some of the early marriages in Henry county must have been of his family.

1 John was the son of Zechariah Nance, whose will is in Union District, 1828. The rest of this data was sent in by Mrs Charles E Denton, of Shelby, Mississippi.

"John Nance was born about 1792. He died 21 oct, 1836. "Died on Thursady the 20th inst. at his residence in Union District." Copied from an old Bible owned by John Drayton Nance.

His residence was Union District, South Carolina. Called "Old 96th." He was thought to have had a brother named James (or Jim) as Harvey Elijah Wilbourn Nance, son of John Nance, referred to "Uncle Jim", saying that he was of an adventurous nature, and liked to trade horses. He went security on a deby for a friend who defaulted. Property and about forty slaves were sacrificed to pay this debt.

Dorcas Lucinda Wilbourn was born about 1793, (probably in Spartanburg, S. C.), and died about 1873 in the home of her daughter Everlina (Nance) McPherson, wife of Dr. R R McPherson, Brierfield, Bibb county, Alabama. At 80 years of age. Emmet W Nance is the grandson of Barton Garrett Nance and Lovicy Harrison. He does not know the identity of the Sally Harrison mentioned in the Bible record.

Joseph Nance is the son of Reuben and Amy (Williamson) Nance. See Reuben's will and Bible record.

Charles Philpott's will, Henry, 1828, q. v., mentions his daughter Polly Nance and a son Garrett Philpott.

Sarah Nance, a daughter of Reuben, md 1811 David Philpott, also a son of Charles.

NM, page 320: "Joel Nance married Polly Philpott, in Virginia. Nothing more is known of him, only that he had a son Clement, and a son Allen."
Here, obviously, Joel and Joseph have been confused.

4 This is probably the Joseph of Note 3. The discrepancy in the 1810 and the 1816 could be explained by the difficulty of deciphering the old handwriting.
Oct 9 and oct 25: marriages often were not performed for some time after the issuance of the bond.

1 Joseph Nance's will mentions his wife Mary. He is the son of Daniel and Patience Nance of Bladen N C. See wills for the names of children.

Mrs. F. K. Biggs, Lumberton, N C, writes: "Joseph Nance was born 1772, and died 1820. His wife Mary was born 1777 and died 1851... Tradition gives that Joseph Nance married Mary Singletary, daughter of William Singletary and Mary Harrison. She was said to have been a daughter of John Harrison and wife Margaret. The Singletarys and the Fit-Randolphs are related. One Singletarys replaced his uncle Benjamin Fitz-Randolph in the Revolutionary War, according to pension records..."

2 Lessenby was the son of Reuben and Nancy (Brown) Nance. Born 20 aug 1801. He left Henry county in 1830. We find him mentioned in Collins, History of Kentucky, vol. 2, page 731, as a member of the Kentucky House of Representatives for 1836 and 1840.

3 We find references to the Lett family, in connection with Nance, from the earliest records. A Lett Nance is listed in the Pittsylvania personal property tax lists fro 1802 and 1803. Where he went is not known.

He was born ca. 1814, probably in Henry or Pittsylvania county, Virginia. He married in Henry county 1836, which is the earliest record found concerning him. He was a farmer all his life, and owned land on Home (Holm's) Creek, near Axton, at Boxwood, Va., which is near the Henry-Pittsylvania-Rockingham N C line. After the Civil War he moved to Montgomery County, then across the New River into Pulaski County, Va. Most of his children followed him. He purchased land on the New River, several miles from Radford. Most of it is now covered by the waters of Claytor Lake. He died ca. 1892. After his death his wife lived on alone at the farm. She died a few years later. Both were buried on the farm.

His wife, Eliza (not Elizabeth) F Barker, was the daughter of Allen Barker and Isbell McDaniel, who was the daughter of _____ and Sally McDaniel. See Allen Barker's will, 1856.

2 I believe this man is the progenitor of the Nance family, at least of all the Virginia Nances - and I have found none any where else at an early date. As the early records of our key counties are lost, there is very little data available, so we can only speculate. I believe him the father of the William mentioned in the 17th century records, probably father of the John whose will is filed 1716. There may have been other children also. It is interesting to note that the name of his wife, Alice, is not found in any of the Nance families. This may mean that she died, and that Richard married a second time, perhaps an Eleanor or Elizabeth, as these are both very popular in all familie

3 This is the son of John Nance, whose will is recorded 1716. He was probably the grandson of the Richard of 1639. MM, page 312, has some data on him and his descendants.

The Bristol Parish Register names these children: John, b. 15 dec 1723; Elizabeth, 7 nov 1725; Leonard, 15 dec 1730; Nathaniel, 9 dec 1731; Anne, 15 jan 1741/42.

There was also a son Thomas, who married Sarah (Gibbs ?). Richard later moved to Bedford county with Thomas, and apparently spent the later part of his life with him.

Nathaniel md. Susannah _____ q.v.

Leonard may have died young, as no mention is found of him in later records.

John is mentioned later in deeds, etc., but I am not sure at this time who he married, or what became of him.

Nm says that there was also a William. He was probably the one who married Elizabeth _____, and moved to Lincoln, N C.

NM also says that Elizabeth md William Jones, and had one child, Mary Jones, who md John Bates 10 nov 1774. She was born 25 sep 1749, and left in the care of her grandparents Richard and Mary Nance.

Richard was born ca. 1700. He died in Bedford county, ca. 1780, for on 25 mar 1780 he deed to Thomas Nance, "for natural love and affection, and for £ 500, 8 slaves and all personal property." Deed Book 6, 407.

2 Reuben Nance was the son of William Nance, whose will is in

Brunswick county, Va., 1770. His mother's name is not known, but, as Reuben named two of his children Sally - the first daughters by each of his two wives - I would guess that her name was Sarah _____.

Reuben was born ca. 1745, probably in what is now the Brunswick-Mecklenburg district. His father lived in Brunswick, but we find the first records of Reuben and his brothers John, and Isham in Mecklenburg, which adjoins Brunswick. He died in Henry county 13 jan 1812.

Reuben's first wife was Amy Williamson, whom he married ca. 1766, as their first child was born 14 jly 1767. The NM gives her name as Williams, but other records show it as Williamson. There was a close connection between the Nance and the Williamson families in this section. I have searched the records here, but have been unable so far to locate her parents.

After the death of his father, Reuben sold his lands in Mecklenburg in late 1771, and moved up into Henry county, which was then being opened up for settlement. He obtained some land by state grants, and purchased other acreage from various individuals, until he had more than 440 acres. He lived in the eastern section of the county, near the Pittsylvania-Henry line, at a place called Leatherwood. A mountian here is still called Nance's mountain.

Reuben was a man of some education, as he was appointed a surveyor for a time. He also served several months in the Revolution as an ensign, but soon resigned. He is supposed to have had Patrick Henry for a neighbor.

Fortunately his Bible record has been saved, and so we now know the names of his children. The Nance Memorial makes the statement that he was the father of twenty-eight children, and this, although false, has been spread as truth. He actually had only twenty, fourteen sons and six daughters. All of them, apparently, married, and all left Henry county to go to the west and the south, where new land was cheap and easy to obtain. Several were Primitive Baptist ministers.

Reuben was accompanied into the Henry county section by his brother John, but unfortunately no concise record has been found of his family. His brother Isham remained in Mecklenburg, and the record of the division of his estate tells us who his children were.

The Bible record shows that Reuben's children by his first wife, Reuben's 2nd wife, Nancy Brown, was born 19 may 1767. (She was the same age as his oldest daughter). She died 26 dec 1825.

The children by this marriage were:

Sally, b. 2 nov 1791; Stephen, 11jun 1793; Peyton, 18 feb 1795; Edmund, 8 jun 1797; Lessenby, 20 aug 1801; Nancy, 22 mar 1804; Reuben (Sanders) 28 may 1808.

Look under the various names for more information about these children.

Reuben died 13 jan 1812. His will is recorded in Henry County.

After his death his wife remained in Henry County and raised her younger children. After her death in 1825, the property was sold, and by 1832 all his sons had left. The name Reuben, however, is still found in some of the Nance families of that section.

2 Reuben Sanders Nance, son of Reuben and Nancy (Brown) Nance. Born 28 may 1808.

The Census for 1850, St. Clair County, Missouri, has:

1 McAdams, Kentucky Pioneers, page 309

2 The author of the HGN, page 19 ff, is mostly concerned with this Robert, and goes into considerable detail about him and his descendants. He writes:

"Robert Nance, the son of John Nance Jr., grandson of John Nance Sr., lived in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. He was twice married, the first five children were by his first wife, and Sarah and Lucy were by the second marriage. His first wife was supposed to be a sister of James Marshall, and last wife Faithy Merriman."

Part of this statement is incorrect. Robert is the son of the Daniel Nance who died 1780 in Randolph N C. NM, page 329, says: "Robert Nance... had three nephews, Hudson, Thomas, and Marshall, who settled in Randolph county, N C, about 1795." A comparison of the wills of Daniel and his son Thomas (1808) shows that this is correct.

The will of John Marshall, Mecklenburg, Va., 1782, shows that his daughter Ann is the wife of Robert Nance and the mother of Judith Nance.

The will of James Pennington, Mecklenburg, 1802, speaks of his daughter Faitha Nance.

1 Marriage date given in Bell, The Old Free State, in marriage bonds.

Sarah is the daughter of Thomas Walker, who mentions her in his will as the wife of Robert Nance. He also mentions his wife Susannah Walker, but this is not necessarily Sarah's mother. (There's a confusion of names in this will. It begins: I, Thomas Walker... but is signed James x Walker. writing clear.. Someone erred.) Lunenburg, 18 oct 1802.

Robert is the son of Clement Nance, whose will is in Newberry, South Carolina. (Made 1828; probated 1844). Sumner, History of Newberry, gives this tombstone inscription: "Robert Nance, native of Virginia, b. 10 Jan 1776, d 17 nov 1822." This Clement is the one that is supposed to have married Frances Eppes, q.v. However, Sumner also gives inscrition of Erasmus G Nance, brother of Robert: "Erasmus G Nance, son of Clement and Elizabeth S Nance, b 8 jan, 1814; d 8 jan 1855" and also "Elizabeth S Nance, b. 11 Mar 1784, d. 4 apr 1855" She was probably Clement's 2nd wife, for she certainly could not have been Robert's mother. And too, Clement must have been quite old when he died.

See Robert Nance's will, 1814-1822. He mentions his wife Sally.

6 The will of William Nance, 1825, mentions his daughter Susannah Johnson.

1 The daughter of Reuben and Amy (Williamson) Nance. Born 21 apr 1785.

"William Shakelford, who died in 1870, was a grandson of Henry, whose will was dated 1805, Henry, Virginia. Daniel, who married Tabitha Nance, was a son of Henry.

"One Daniel Shakelford, born in Virginia, 1770, whose wife was Tabitha, were living in Platte County, Missouri, in 1850. No children were in their home. But in the same community there were three other Shakelfords, John, Richardm, and William. John born 1801, Richard 1802, and William 1808. Probably all three were sons of Daniel. And this Daniel is the Henry county Daniel, I am sure.." Data from T K Jones, Lubbock, Texes.

2 Son of Frederick Nance, whose will is dated 1795. Tavener went to Washington County, Kentucky, where his will is filed, 1832.

"... John, Sally, Frederick, Nancy, & Polly, Levy, Johnson, and Fanny Nance, the last three being infants, sue by Tavener Nance, their next friend... (all these Nances) are the children of Tavener Nance, who intermarried with Molly, a sister of John Willinghum, deceased... Rebekah, another sisetr, married

4 This William may be a son of the Richard of 1639. We find him mentioned in several places in sundry records, but most essential county records have been lost. He was granted land for marrying the daughter and the coheir of Grace Tinsley, who was the sister and the coheir of Richard Pierse, who was granted the said land April, 1636. See the grant to William Nance, 1692.

Williams' children are listed in his will. Sumner, Newberry, South Carolina, says that William came to Union county, S C, where he died 1801. See William's will, 1840, and Christiana's, 1858. This couple apparently had no children, or at least none that survived them.
